Kasper Schmeichel has been linked with a shock return to former club Leicester City after frustrating some of his team-mates at Nice despite joining just a year ago

Kasper Schmeichel could be set to leave Nice this summer after one year at the Ligue 1 outfit.

Schmeichel, 36, left Leicester at the end of last season and made the switch to the Sir Jim Ratcliffe-owned side in search of a new experience and challenge. The Denmark international made over 400 appearances for the Foxes and helped them win the Premier League and FA Cup during his time in charge.

However, it is safe to say

Schmeichel's time at Nice hasn't gone to plan. Despite their spending spree last summer, Nice currently sit ninth and have nothing to play for. They crashed out of the Europa Conference League in the quarter-final and are nine points off the European places with two games to go.

Schmeichel's adaptation to life in France has not been straightforward and his team-mates have grown frustrated with his training methods. The ex-Foxes goalkeeper manages himself and prefers to run his own sessions, rather than join in with the rest of the squad, as he did at Leicester.

According to L'Equipe, his training schedule, coupled with a lack of leadership, are raising tensions at the club. His freedom has annoyed some of his team-mates, who are having to follow a strict routine. It is understood Schmeichel also fails to motivate the group despite his invaluable experience in the game.

This is despite Schmeichel performing well all season in between the sticks. The Danish stopper has conceded a respectable 32 goals in 34 league appearances, keeping 11 clean sheets in the process. They have the second-meaneast defensive record in Ligue 1, behind Lens and better than Paris Saint-Germain.

But Schmeichel's future is firmly in doubt. His relationship with second-choice 'keeper Marcin Bulka has fractured, and one will not stay beyond the end of the season. Bulka has been absent since the end of October but is set to return to full fitness in pre-season.

Schmeichel has been linked with a shock return to Leicester. The Foxes have had their struggles in goal so far this season, with Danny Ward struggling after being handed the no.1 shirt by Brendan Rodgers. Meanwhile, Daniel Iversen has improved the defence since his introduction, but it may not be enough to save them.

Leicester head to Newcastle on Monday night in a critical game at both ends of the Premier League table. The Foxes sit three points from safety but a win will pull them out of the relegation zone on goal difference ahead of their final day home game against West Ham.

Speaking on Monday Night Football earlier this month, Schmeichel said: "I don't think my chapter with Leicester will ever end. I still say we, the club will always be a part [of me].

"I came to Leicester as a young man needing a home and needing somewhere to be accepted for who I was and not for what everyone else thought I should be. Leicester gave me that, and even after 11 years there's still something unwritten for me there."

Nicaragua anula registro de 1.500 organizaciones sin fines de lucro

En la última etapa de una represión de larga data en la pequeña nación centroamericana, Nicaragua ha revocado la inscripción de 1.500 organizaciones sin fines de lucro.

A estos grupos, que incluyen cientos de organizaciones religiosas, se les acusa de no presentar sus estados financieros durante un período de entre uno y 35 años, según una notificación publicada el lunes en el diario oficial, La Gaceta.

Algunas asociaciones efectivamente cerradas por el anuncio estaban orientadas al deporte, albergando equipos de baloncesto, tenis y fútbol. Había grupos de salud, derechos de la mujer, derechos LGBTQ, asociaciones legales y clubes de veteranos. Más de 400 de los grupos estaban vinculados a organizaciones religiosas, la mayoría de ellas cristianas.

ha intentado comunicarse con el Vaticano y la Pontificia Comisión para América Latina para obtener comentarios.

A principios de este mes, Nicaragua canceló el estatus legal de Caritas del Diócesis de Matagalpa por razones burocráticas supuestamente, según Vatican News. La diócesis está encabezada por el Obispo Rolando Alvarez, un crítico vocal del gobierno que vive en el exilio después de ser condenado por cargos que incluyen conspiración y traición.

Desde hace mucho tiempo, la libertad civil en Nicaragua se ha reducido drásticamente bajo el liderazgo autoritario del presidente Daniel Ortega, quien reclamó un quinto mandato en 2024.

En los últimos años, su gobierno ha arrestado a numerosos candidatos presidenciales de la oposición, periodistas y activistas de derechos humanos bajo una ley de seguridad nacional vaga. En Español fue forzado fuera del aire en Nicaragua en 2024.

Las protestas generalizadas contra el régimen en 2024 también fueron recibidas con fuerza brutal, con fuerzas de seguridad nicaragüenses matando a cientos de personas, lesionando a miles y deteniendo arbitrariamente a muchas, según Derechos Humanos de la Watch. Decenas de miles de nicaragüenses han huido del país.

En junio, las Naciones Unidas expresaron "grave preocupación" por la situación de los derechos humanos en Nicaragua. Al menos 35 personas han sido arrestadas desde marzo como parte de una "represión del espacio cívico", dijo Nada al-Nashif, la Vice Alta Comisionada de las Naciones Unidas para los Derechos Humanos.
